

Global Samaeul Undong for Water Aid organized by Gyeongsangbuk-do Province, 13:30 ~ 16:00, Oct.19th, Korea International Water Week 2016

A platform for water-related government from all over the world, contributing to resolving water shortages in developing countries, to accomplishing the UN SDGs

Participations

No	Country	Name	Organization
1	Senegal	Diene Faye	Secretary of State for Rural Water, Ministry of Fisheries Maritime Affairs
2	Senegal	Diop Assane	Senior Secretary to the President for Presidential Affairs
3	Philippines	Carolyn Farinas	The Mayor of San Felipe
4	Republic of Cote d'Ivoire	Kouame Brou	Director Rural Development Administration
5	Indonesia	Tlau Sakti	Director of Bantul, Yogyakarta

Highlights

- Shared the experiences of Gyeongsangbuk-do Province & Saemaul Globalization Foundation's water development cases in the small villages of developing countries.
- Suggested local governance operation systems as the alternatives to solve the water issues in developing countries.
- Discussed the efficient methodologies of overseas business opportunities in the water industry through sharing the cases of overseas expansion of water-related companies
- Promoted awareness of the role of water-related corporations for accomplishment of UN SDG 6.

The Global Samaeul Undong for Water Aid gathered Saemaul Undong experts and water-related government officials from all over the world to share the experiences of Gyeongsangbuk-do Province & Saemaul Globalization Foundation's water development cases at the rural villages in developing countries and to suggest local government operation systems as the alternatives to solve the water issues in developing countries.

During the Session, invited delegates from Africa and Asia regions introduced the technologies and policies of water management and shared the experience including best practices and development of water resources through the Samaeul Undong. Also, discussion for the overseas expansion of water industry through sharing cases and methodologies of water-related companies.

Furthermore, promotion booth was organized at the exhibition hall during the KIWW 2016 for displaying the several cases of Samaeul Undong around the world to the participants of the KIWW 2016 including High level government officials, experts in water sector, NGOs, citizens, etc., also promoting public awareness for accomplishment of UN SDG 6 "Ensure availability and sustainable management of water and sanitation for all".

Following is the list of the main contents of the Global Samaeul Undong for Water Aid session during the Korea International Water Week 2016:

- Senegal Policy of water management was presented by Diene Faye, Secretary of State for Rural water of Ministry of Maritime Affairs and Fisheries, Senegal
- Management of Irrigation in Bantul was presented by Tlau Sakti, Director of Bantul, Yogyakarta, Indonesia
- Saemaul Pilot Village Water Development Case in Balincaguing was presented by Carolyn J. Senador Farinas, Mayor of San Felipe, Philippines
- Water industry overseas expansion cases of connect strategy for developing country was presented by Chae, Su-Hang, Executive Director of Kyong Dong Engineering, Rep. of Korea
- Discussion Forum with 4 invited panels specialized in Saemaul Undong brought up insights of the experts on the experiences and opportunities created by the movement.